November 2006 – Present

Specialist in Communication & Marketing

The AUVA (Allgemeine Unfallversicherungsanstalt - the Austrian Workers' Compensation Board) is the Austrian social insurance for occupational risks for more than 3 million employed persons and 1.3 million school children and students. We care for about 170 000 victims of occupational accidents and diseases annually. About 350 000 persons involved in accidents of all kinds are treated in our trauma centres and rehabilitation centres every year. We pay about 73 000 compensations per year to victims of occupational accidents and diseases or their families.
